The Fountain of Living Waters

Scripture Reading: Jer. 2:13; Psa. 36:8-9; John 4:14; 7:37; Rev. 22:17

- I. “My people have committed two evils: / They have forsaken Me, / The fountain of living waters, / To hew out for themselves cisterns, / Broken cisterns, / Which hold no water”—Jer. 2:13:
- A. God’s intention in His economy is to be the fountain, the source, of living waters to satisfy His chosen people for their enjoyment:
 - 1. The goal of this enjoyment is to produce the church as God’s increase, God’s enlargement, to be God’s fullness for His expression—Eph. 1:22-23.
 - 2. God needs to be the fountain of living waters to His elect because He has an economy, and His economy is to produce a counterpart, a bride, for Himself—John 3:29a; Rev. 19:7-8.
 - 3. God’s economy is to dispense Himself as the living waters to produce His increase, His enlargement, for His expression—Col. 2:19.
 - 4. Nothing apart from God as the fountain of living waters can quench our thirst and satisfy us; nothing apart from God dispensed into our being can make us His increase for His expression—John 4:13-14; 7:37; Rev. 22:17.
 - 5. God’s intention is to be everything to His chosen people so that they may trust in Him and rely on Him for everything; if they do this, they will receive God’s dispensing—Jer. 17:7-8.
 - B. God’s intention is to dispense Himself into man as man’s satisfaction so that God might be enlarged, but man became unfaithful and unchaste and forsook God for idols—2:13:
 - 1. Adam fell by forsaking the tree of life and turning to another tree—the tree of the knowledge of good and evil—Gen. 2:9, 16-17; 3:1-13.
 - 2. Israel fell by forsaking God as the fountain of living waters and turning to a source other than God; this source is signified by the cisterns—Jer. 2:13.
 - C. Sin is to forsake God and to do something by ourselves and for ourselves; this is exactly what the children of Israel did—v. 13:
 - 1. They forsook God as the fountain of living waters for their supply.
 - 2. According to their opinion, they did whatever they could to work out something by themselves for their enjoyment.
 - D. Israel practiced apostasy rather than keeping her faithfulness—v. 19:
 - 1. Apostasy is a matter of leaving the way of God and taking another way to follow things other than God—Acts 9:2; 18:26; 2 Pet. 2:2, 15, 21; Jude 11:

- a. Apostasy means to be distracted from the right way in following God.
 - b. Apostasy is doing something for the self under the cloak of worshipping God.
2. Dan's apostasy was setting up a divisive center of worship—Judg. 18:30-31; 17:9-10; 1 Kings 12:26-31; 2 Kings 10:29:
- a. Nothing throughout the history in the Old Testament was more sinful or more damaging to God's people than Dan's act of setting up a divisive center of worship.
 - b. The source of Dan's apostasy was in not caring for the other tribes; not caring for the other parts of the Body is the source of apostasy.

II. "With You is the fountain of life"—Psa. 36:9a:

- A. The Lord's recovery is first to recover the matter of life—1 John 1:1-2.
- B. The divine life may be considered the first and the basic attribute of God—Eph. 4:18; John 5:26; 1 John 5:11-12; Rom. 8:2:
 - 1. According to the divine and eternal nature of the life of God, God's life is the unique life; only the life of God can be counted as life—John 1:4; 10:10b; 11:25; 14:6.
 - 2. Life is the content of God and the flowing out of God; God's content is God's being, and God's flowing out is the impartation of Himself as life to us—Eph. 4:18; Rev. 22:1.
 - 3. Life is Christ, and life is Christ living in us and lived out from us—John 14:6; Col. 3:4; Gal. 2:20; Phil. 1:21a.
 - 4. Life is the Holy Spirit—John 14:16-17; 1 Cor. 15:45b; Rom. 8:2; 2 Cor. 3:6.
 - 5. Life is the Triune God dispensed into us and living in us—Rom. 8:10, 6, 11.
- C. God wants us to take Him as the fountain, the source, of our life and our being—Jer. 2:13; Psa. 36:9a:
 - 1. In His economy God is the fountain of living waters to His chosen people, the unique source of their living.
 - 2. The Bible shows us that God is the source in every way; the principle in the Bible is that God does not want His chosen people to take anything other than Himself as the source—Rom. 11:36; 1 Cor. 8:6; Matt. 15:13.
- D. The Triune God has been processed and consummated in order to dispense Himself into our being—John 7:37-39; Rom. 8:11:
 - 1. God's economy is to dispense Himself into our being so that our being can be constituted with His being; this can be accomplished only by God putting Himself into us as the divine life.
 - 2. By dispensing Himself into us as life, God fulfills His desire to have a corporate expression of Himself for eternity—Rev. 21:9-10; 22:1.
- E. We need to drink of God as the fountain of living waters so that He may increase for the fulfillment of His economy to have His expression through His counterpart—Jer. 2:13; 1 Cor. 12:13:
 - 1. When we drink of God as the fountain of living waters, He becomes one with us, and we become one with Him—Psa. 36:8-9.
 - 2. The more we drink of God, the more He is one with us and the more we are one with Him and constituted with Him in His life and nature.
